

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE B4.

WASHINGTON POST
20 June 1986

OBITUARIES

ANITA EWENS PERRIN,

71, a retired secretary with the Federal Reserve Board who also had worked for the Central Intelligence Agency, died June 17 at her home in Alexandria. She had pneumonia.

Miss Perrin was born in Salisbury, Md. During World War II, she served in Italy with the old Office of Strategic Services, a predecessor of the CIA. She transferred to the CIA in 1947 and remained with the agency until the early 1950s. She then joined the Federal Reserve Board, where she retired about 1970.

She was a member of the Colonial Dames of America, the Jamestown Society and the English-Speaking Union.

Survivors include one brother, retired Army Lt. Col. William Kennon Perrin of Alexandria.